

*Ganondagan
Native American*

WINTER GAMES AND SPORTS

SATURDAY,
FEBRUARY 7, 2009
10 A.M. TO 4 P.M.

Walk in snowshoes. Throw a snowsnake. Enjoy storytelling near the fire pit in the bark longhouse. Watch a Native American video in the visitor center. Watch the art of Seneca dog sledding on the hilltop of Ganondagan. Watch Native American artists make snowshoes and toboggans.

GANONDAGAN
STATE HISTORIC SITE,
VICTOR, NY

Admission is free and open to the public. Foods will be available for sale. The event will take place even without snow at Ganondagan State Historic Site, corner of State Rte. 444 and County Rte. 41 outside the Village of Victor.

Visit ganondagan.org or call
(585) 742-1690 for details.

Preserving a past  Providing a future

GANONDAGAN